Pepsi dumps cancer-causing chemical

By Tyler Falk | July 8, 2013, 7:56 AM PDT

While Coca-Cola made news recently for a bottle made of ice, Pepsi is making news for a troubling chemical inside its bottles.

The chemical in question is called 4-methylimidazole (4-MEI) and it's used for the soda's caramel coloring. The problem? It's a known carcinogen. It causes cancer.

See DeGeorge (1999) on the “Myth of the Amoral Firm”

Defining CSR: The myth of the 'free market'

“...the doctrine of ‘social responsibility’ involves the acceptance of the socialist view that political mechanisms, not market mechanisms, are the appropriate way to determine the allocation of scarce resources to alternative uses.”

- Milton Friedman

Defining CSR: The myth of Milton Freedom

Milton Friedman

“...there is only one social responsibility for companies and that is to make as much money as possible...

...while conforming to the basic rules of society, both those embodied in law and those embodied in ethical custom.”

Defining CSR

What is “responsibility”?

1. Causal
2. Official
3. Capacity

Defining CSR

CSR =
the rights and responsibilities assigned to private industry.

Claude Monet 1899

Defining CSR

- Labour practices:
 - child labour
 - forced labour
 - right to organise
 - OSH
- Environmental conditions
 - water & air emissions
 - bio-diversity, climate change
- Human rights
 - links with security forces and complicity in extra-judicial killings
 - impacts on access to water, health, food, education, shelter
 - impact on minorities and indigenous peoples
 - lack of access to remedy
- Poverty Alleviation
 - create employment
 - contribute to public revenues
 - transfer skills and technology
- Bribery and corruption

Why does corporate policy matter?

Governance gaps, consolidation of market share, GVCs

FDI Inflows to Developing and Transition Economies ($Billions)

Why does corporate policy matter?

Private policy,
at a large enough scale,
is equivalent to public policy.

Implications for Development

David Henderson

“[CSR]’s adoption would reduce competition and economic freedom, and undermine the market economy.”

“...[CSR] is liable to hold back the development of poor countries through the suppression of employment opportunities within them.”

Be careful of what you think you know

Implications for Development

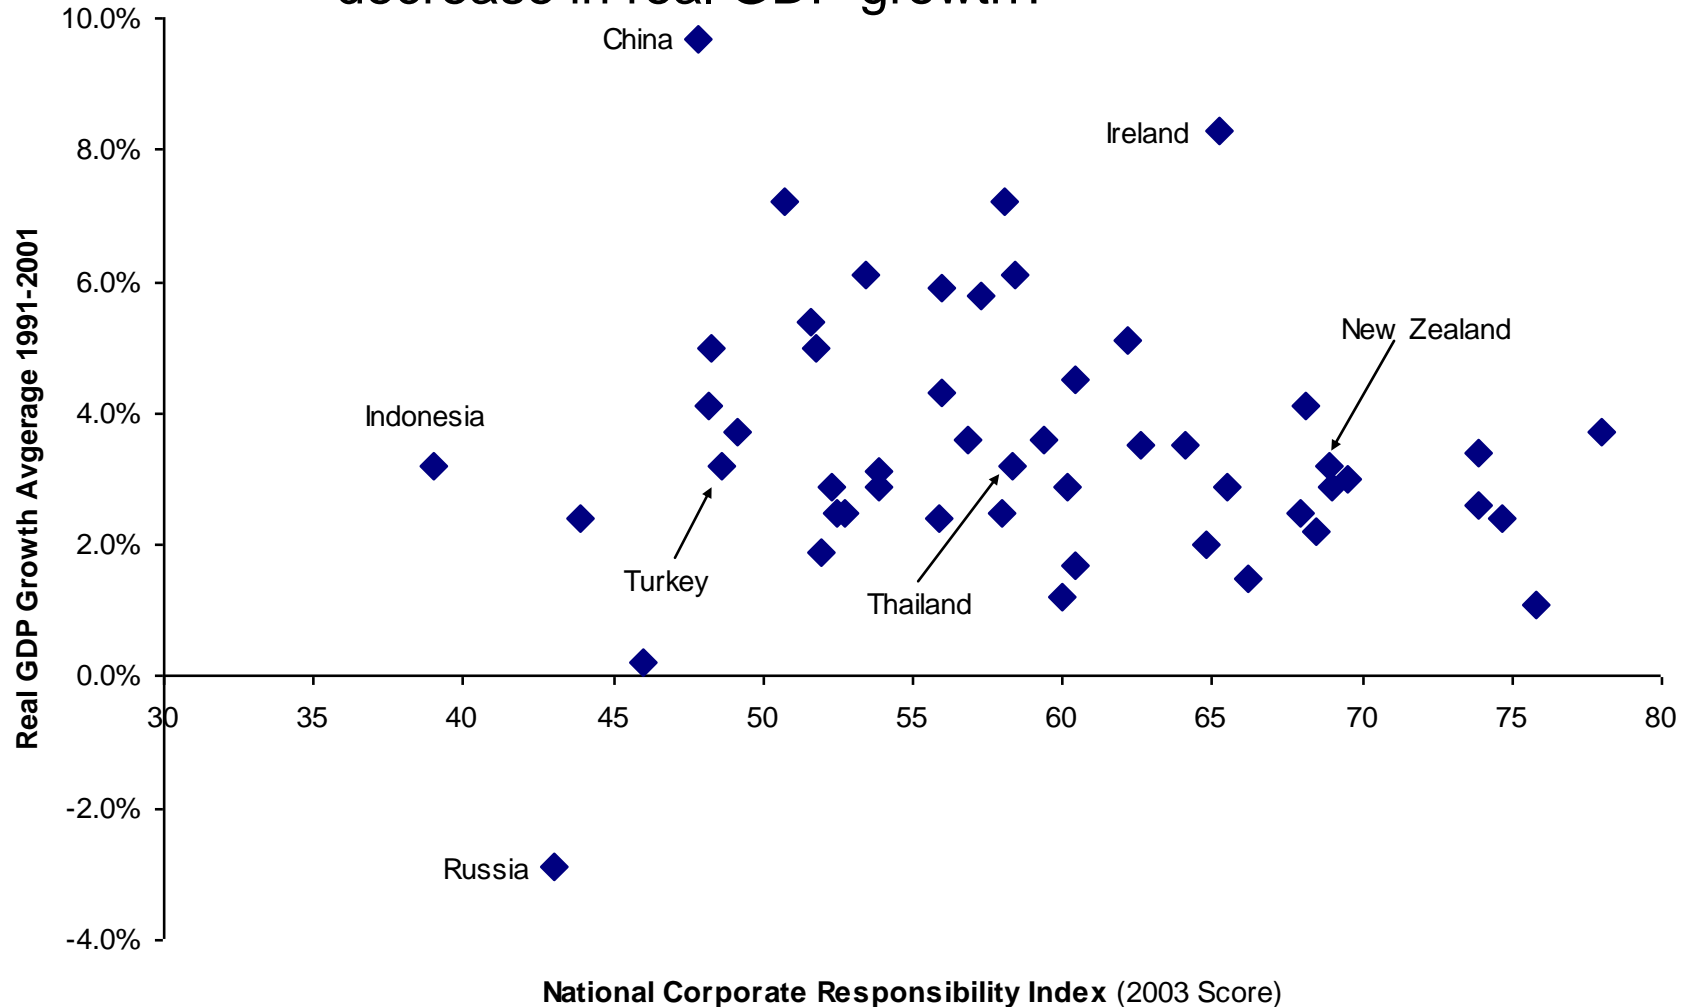

Does an increase in CSR correspond with an increase in labour costs?

Implications for Development

Does an increase in CSR correspond with a decrease in real GDP growth?
